

Privacy Notice for Endon High School Staff

(How we use school workforce information)

Endon High School complies with the General Data Protection Regulation and is a registered Data Controller. Our data protection notification is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) – reference Z5152140.

The categories of school workforce information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- ✓ personal information (such as name, employee or teacher number, national insurance number);
- ✓ special categories of data including characteristics information such as gender, age, ethnic group;
- ✓ contract information (such as start dates, hours worked, post, roles and salary information);
- ✓ work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons);
- ✓ qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught);
- ✓ payroll information (such as bank details and pension details);
- ✓ medical information where appropriate.

Why we collect and use this information

We use school workforce data to:

- ✓ enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed;
- ✓ inform the development of recruitment and retention policies;
- ✓ enable individuals to be paid;
- ✓ enable enrolment and membership of the relevant pension scheme.

The lawful basis on which we process this information

We process this information under:

- ✓ Education Act 1996 (see <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>);
- ✓ General Data Protection Regulation Article 6 (Lawfulness of Processing) – ‘processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject’;
- ✓ General Data Protection Regulation Article 9 (Processing of Special Categories of Personal Data) – ‘processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising specific rights of the controller’.

Collecting this information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain school workforce information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing this information

We hold school workforce data for seven years after termination of employment.

Who we share this information with

We routinely share this information with:

- ✓ our local authority;
- ✓ the Department for Education (DfE);
- ✓ pension scheme providers;
- ✓ Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checking service provider;
- ✓ occupational health provider.

Why we share school workforce information

We do not share information about workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

- ✓ Local authority
We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.
- ✓ Department for Education (DfE)
We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation, and links to school funding / expenditure and the assessment educational attainment.
We are required to share information about our school employees with our local authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.
- ✓ Pension Scheme Providers
We share personal data and information in order to administer the Teachers' Pension Scheme (TPS), Local Government Pension Scheme (LGPS) for school employees and Additional Voluntary Contribution scheme (AVC). This is a requirement of auto-enrolment legislation; however, all employees have the right to 'opt-out' of their relevant scheme.
- ✓ Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Checking Service Provider
We share personal data in order to carry out enhanced DBS checks for all employees and volunteers who work at the school, which follows national and local guidance for the safeguarding and welfare of our students.
- ✓ Occupational Health Provider
We may share personal information on employee health and well-being in order to ensure fitness for work.

Data collection requirements

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those employed by schools (including Multi Academy Trusts) and local authorities that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies and free schools and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005.

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/datacollection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The department may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- ✓ conducting research or analysis;
- ✓ producing statistics;
- ✓ providing information, advice or guidance.

The department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- ✓ who is requesting the data;
- ✓ the purpose for which it is required;
- ✓ the level and sensitivity of data requested;
- ✓ the arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data.

To be granted access to school workforce information, organisations must comply with its strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
